Recognition of Prior Learning for Hairforce 1 Training Academy (RPL)

If you have previously completed units from a barbering qualification that can be matched to units on the qualification you would like to register for, then you may be eligible for RPL.

Hairforce1 training academy will require a full copy of your certificate(s) – including details of the qualification and the units you completed. Requests for RPL will need to be made before registration for a new qualification.

Our assessment will include a range of factors including how recently your prior qualification was achieved and its validity, how well the learning outcomes and assessment criteria of your previous qualifications or achievements match those within the qualification you are interested in.

If we approve RPL, we will also quote an individually adjusted price for your vocational qualification.

If you feel you may be eligible for RPL please email jade@hairforce-1.co.uk letting us know which qualification you are interested in and include a copy of your certificate/s, which must include unit details. Our enrolment team will then make an assessment for possible RPL.
